

CONSUMPTION

The Wonderful Doctor Slocum System of Treatment is Demonstrating Every Day to the Entire Civilized World, that Consumption is Curable.

THOUSANDS HAVE BEEN CURED.

By Special and Particular Arrangement, Four Free Preparations, Embracing the Complete Slocum System, May be Obtained by Every Reader of This Paper.

Consumption is curable. The discovery has been made, perfected, and is being demonstrated every day to the entire civilized world by the eminent American medical expert, Dr. T. A. Slocum.

The Slocum System is a thorough, complete and comprehensive system of treatment consisting of four distinct preparations. Combined, they represent the actual and complete Slocum System, as illustrated above, by sending their complete names, postoffice and express addresses to the Slocum Laboratories, 96 and 98 Pine Street, New York, N. Y., and be sure to say that you read this, a curious offer in this paper.

First—The Slocum System kills and drives out of the human system every death-dealing germ, thereby rendering it susceptible to responsive treatment.

Second—It introduces a building-up, fattening, strength-restoring food, which restores the disease-wasted tissues and brings the throat and lungs into active, healthy use.

Third—It stops at once all catarrhal and mucous discharges and kills the cough.

Fourth—It provides a true tonic influence, which invigorates and stimulates, vitalizes all weak spots and brings the entire system back to a healthy normal condition.

Best of all, this glorious discovery is yours for the asking. By a special arrangement made with the Doctor, readers of this paper may obtain the four preparations making up the complete Slocum System, as illustrated above, by sending their complete names, postoffice and express addresses to the Slocum Laboratories, 96 and 98 Pine Street, New York, N. Y., and be sure to say that you read this, a curious offer in this paper.

THE CRUCIBLE.

FROM PENNY MAGAZINE.

It is not always safest to run behind the wall. Walls have been known to fall.

A fool and a wise man ought to be good friends; both have a good deal in common.

It often happens that our good intentions have a string to them, and we hold one end of it.

If we are as sure of our neighbor's as we are of our own, our neighbor would be almost as good as we are.

Beautiful scenery is seldom very good for agricultural purposes. It is the dead flat monotony of prairie that gives the food supply of the world.

It is quite likely that if whiskey masqueraded under the name "extract of grain" it would be admitted with favor to many more households.

If you want to be rid of a man loan him money.

The man who falls and does not pay may live to tell another day.

A good man is a drop of oil on the ocean of humanity; his influence is storm-quieting and protective. He rides over all the waves of adversity and is not overwhelmed by the wildest turmoil of the waters. He is the oil of the ocean.

The poor make no new friends—they lose old ones.

It virtue were practiced by all who admire, we should have a world of angels.

First love can never come to man or woman the second time.

In a package containing about one-quarter pound and which purports to contain a full half pound, the manufacturer puts a printed card to his patrons which begins as follows: "The public is most emphatically informed that in these times of humbugs, imitations and cheap substitutes," and then follows with a protestation of his own honesty.

I often think that fate gives us much that we don't expect in order to deny us something that we really want.

The tact which we use in our dealings with others isn't to be compared to that which we have to exercise in order to be on good terms with ourselves.

Who ever heard of a rolling stone complaining because it gathered no moss? Is it not proud of its beautiful rounded shape? And certainly no one ever called it a mossback.

In most things it takes two men to do one man's work. One makes, the other sells.

The fellow who isn't strong enough to kill his competitor always has for his motto "Live and let live."

If a man thought as ill of himself at 10 o'clock at night, when he goes to bed, as he does at 4 in the morning when he awakes, he'd never go to sleep.

The postmaster in a little country town causes more transient sorrow or happiness than he would care to remember.

Some "passing fancies" live long enough to become vanishing ones.

The present is ours, but while we are deciding what to do with it the future comes and snatches it away from us.

Many a man thinks he is a martyr to unpleasant duties when he is simply doing what he legally and morally is obliged to do.

The man who doesn't tell his love may please every one except his sweetheart.

Those who speak of the limit to human possibility forget the great inventions of the past hundred years.

A weak minded man ought to marry his opposite—a strong minded woman; but if he does he will regret it.

There would be fewer blackguards in the world if certain men had died poor. We mean their fathers.

In searching for means to an end we often forget the end.

You can make water run up hill, but it requires a lot of pumping.

From a false point of view even truth itself always seems false.

We do a good deed from impulse, and try to convince ourselves that we meant to do it.

The way of the transgressor is hard sometimes even before he is found out.
